INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT

Board of Directors Interlink Securities Corp. Woodland Hills, CA 91367

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Interlink Securities Corp. (a California corporation), as of March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Interlink Securities Corp., as of March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MARCH 31, 2003 AND 2002

Note 1 - Significant Accounting Policies:

Organization

Interlink Securities Corp. formerly known as Centrestone Financial Securities Corp. (the Company) was incorporated in California on June 1, 1992. The Company is a registered broker - dealer pursuant to section 15(b) of the Securities Act of 1934. The Company operates as a limited broker - dealer servicing the life insurance and annuity needs of other full services broker dealers.

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual method of accounting for financial statement purposes.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash and investments that have a maturity of less than three months.

Commissions Receivable

The Company considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes commission income on the wholesaling of variable life and variable annuities products when the insurance company who places the insurance policy receives their premium payment.

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense was $0 for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Comprehensive income

The Company accounts for comprehensive income in accordance with SFAS No. 130 "Reporting Comprehensive Income", which requires comprehensive income and its components to be reported when a company has items of comprehensive income. Comprehensive income includes net income plus other comprehensive income (I.e., certain revenues, expenses, gains and losses reported as separate components of stockholders' equity rather than in net income).

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Significant Accounting Policies (continued):

Income Taxes

Effective April 1, 1995 with the merger of the Company with its parent, Centrelink Insurance and Financial Services, the Company is included in the parent's consolidated federal and combined state income tax returns. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Deferred income taxes result primarily from state income taxes.

Note 2 - Intercompany Payable and Related Party Transactions

The Company's parent, Centerlink Insurance and Financial Services advances money for the Company's salaries and bonuses, rent, telephone and general overhead expenses. During the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company paid approximately $2,400,000 and $2,300,000 respectively, for these overhead expenses. The Company also paid an intercompany dividend to its parent company of $500,000 and $2,100,000 for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. In addition, the Company had net transactions with its parent amounting to $1,194,600 and $659,295 for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, which includes the allocation of the consolidated income tax provision for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002.

Note 3 - Income Taxes

Income tax expense (benefit) for the years ended March 31, consisted of the following:

| | 2003 | 2002 | | |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------|--|--|
| Current: Federal State | $ 500,000 150,000 | $ 1,250,000 340,000 | | |

| Total deferred | 55,500 | (47,000) | | |
| Total | $ 705,500 | $ 1,543,000 | | |

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MARCH 31, 2003 AND 2002

Note 3 - Income Taxes (continued)

The components of deferred tax liabilities (assets) follow:

| • | 2003 | 2002 |
|--|----------|-------------|
| Deferred tax assets State tax (current) State tax (deferred) | 2,000 | (53,271) |
| Total gross deferred tax assets | 2,000 | (53,271) |
| Valuation allowance | - | (229) |
| Net deferred tax liability (asset) | $ 2,000 | $ (53,500) |

The Company files a consolidated income tax return with its parent. For the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded its share of the consolidated income tax expense on a separate return basis. The Company's current tax expense of $705,500 and $1,590,000 for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 was recorded as "Intercompany Payable" on the Company's balance sheet

Note 4 - Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains their cash in bank deposit accounts in a high credit quality financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At March 31, 2003 and March 31, 2002 the Company exceeded the insured limit by approximately $730,699 and $2,081,554, respectively.

Note 5 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the uniform net capital rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires both the maintenance of minimum net capital and the maintenance of maximum ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital. At March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company had net capital of $533,343 and $328,477, which was $519,254 and $187,713 in excess of its required net capital of $14,089 and $140,764, respectively. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.4 and 6.43, respectively, which is less than the 15 to 1 maximum ratio for a broker dealer.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Board of Directors
Interlink Securities Corp.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Interlink Securities Corp. for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5 (g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by Interlink Securities Corp., that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5 (g). We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3 (a) (11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. The broker dealer was in compliance with the conditions of exemption under rule 15c3-3 (k) (2) (i) and that no facts came to our attention indicating that such conditions had not been complied with during the year. We did not review practices and procedures followed by the company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verification and comparisons, and the recordation of difference required by the rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial function relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5 (g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure of the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in the amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at March 31, 2003 and 2002 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5 (g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purposes.
